

October

TODAY WE WELCOME-

ERIC WELLS

Our speaker today is Eric Wells, Virtual Enterprise offers high school students the opportunity to experience, in a simulated business environment, all facets of being an employee in a firm. Learn how this live simulation fosters economic literacy through enterprise education in a Global Marketplace and how your students can become involved.

OUR GREETER FOR TODAY- Bryan Bobo

Congratulations on your special day!

NO Anniversaries This Week!

Birthdays This Week!

Leonard Still, Oct. 10
Fred Lockman, Oct. 13

GREETER FOR NEXT MEETING- John Few, October 15th

PROGRAM FROM LAST MEETING-

Curt McPhail, from globalbike. Curt is an entrepreneur in the area of service to others.

WE WELCOMED THE FOLLOWING GUEST(S) FROM LAST MEETING-

No Guests Last Meeting!

“Leaders aren’t born, they are made. And they are made just like anything else, through hard work. And that’s the price we’ll pay to achieve that goal, or any goal.”

~Vince Lombardi

CIVITAN EVENTS-

Our new President for the 2008-2009 year, Bill Ferguson, will need our help to make this year be a success. One of Bill’s goals for this coming year is to get 8 new members added to our club. This is Bill’s second term as President.

2008 Installation Banquet

DATES TO REMEMBER-

October 14th, Tues. - Board meeting at the workshop, 5:30 p.m.

UPCOMING SPEAKERS -

November 5th - INGO ANGERMEIER, President of the SRMC

NEXT MEETING - October 15th

A video of the International Research Center in Birmingham, Alabama. Then a Quick business meeting by our President Bill Ferguson.

